

A GOAT HOME

illustrated by
Oloth Senthichak

Jill the goat is struggling with the heat. She has to find a way to cool off.

Jill sees a frog chilling out under a leaf. She tries the same, but the leaf is too small.

She has seen other goats seeking shade in bushes.
These ones are too sparse.

Jill makes it all the way to town.
She sees a team making a hut.
Does that keep them cool?

After watching the hut get made, Jill thinks that she can put up a home of her own.

When she is done with dragging and stacking the branches, Jill is ready to test it out.

It is a great home for a goat. Jill won't be seeking shelter for the rest of the summer.
