

Drip, Drop!

Illustrated by Priya Kuriyan

Drip, drop.

She loves to stand in the rain.

She puts up her arms and grins.

They put out
some pails to catch the rain.

They can use it.

Her mum likes to stay in the house when it rains.

She plays a tune and sings.

The birds are not fans of the rain.

They put up their tails to try to keep the rain off.

They get home
and get dry.

The smells from dinner trail into the living room.

All of the plants will be so green. She loves to see how much things grow from the rain.

She is a big fan of this tree. The rain helps it to grow up big and strong.
