

LOTS OF POTS

illustrated by
Tanvi Bhat

It is Summer.

Pip and Tom are playing outside when they see a pile of paint pots.

Mum is having the house painted.

Pip and Tom think it looks like it would be fun.

So the painters give them each a pot and a brush to give it a try.

They enjoy painting the gate so much...

...that Pip starts painting on the blank wall.

She wants to make a pattern in yellow, green, red, and blue.

After she has finished it, she cleans it off with a mop.

She knows her mother won't want a stripey wall.

They get pain all over themselves too.

Mum has a cloth ready to wipe them down.

The kids want to show mum how they painted the gate. Toms sees a problem. Pip painted her side red...

...but Tom's side of the gate is painted green.

But Mum loves it.

'Let's keep it just like that,' she says.
