

OTTER AND HER PUPS

Written by BEL RICHARDSON

Illustrated by ROHIT KELKAR

Otters! When an otter has kids we call them pups, just like we do with dogs.

Their mum will teach them what they need to live. The otter and her pups go for a swim. The pups have fun.

She tells them spots to hide. They can hide in an old log or some rocks.

They must learn how to float. Big otters spend a lot of time on their backs.

They spot a man with a net. He wants fish, but otters can get stuck as well.

A trap that snaps shut. It cracks bones. She tells the pups to give traps a wide berth.

She must teach her pups
how to duck in the water to get by crocs.

The pups learn how to find a den.

They can learn while they have fun
as well.

Their tails smack the water as they dive.

Some of them get fish. It is hard.

Their mum will share with them.
There is a lot to learn.
