

MIRROR MAGIC

illustrated by Divina Ariadini

A farmer had three very selfish children. They were always doing bad things.

The farmer had a magic mirror.

He warned his children not to play with it.

'Don't look in the mirror,' he said.

Of course, the selfish children did not do as they were told and looked into the magic mirror.

They were surprised by the ugly monsters
staring back at them.

So they tried to change
the way they looked in the mirror.

The first boy put on his best, velvet jacket.

He was so surprised
when the mirror still showed him as a troll.

Then his sister
tried running past
the mirror. But she still looked like a troll too.

The youngest boy
tried smiling at
the mirror.

But still nothing
changed.

They hid in their beds
from the trolls in the magic mirror.

Their father came in.

'To look good, you
must be good,' he told them.

'Now look again in the mirror,' he said.
