There are all sorts of hats. Here is a party hat. He is headed out to have a good time. The hat is just for fun. He dials up his friend to see when they will get there.

Here is a hat for the sun. If you wear a hat on the beach, it helps to keep the rays off your face. Too much sun can ruin your skin. I hope she has sunscreen on as well.

Here is a hat for the snow. It keeps her head warm. She can go out and see the mountains and not get a chill.

This man is in a parade. His hat is a part of a costume. He is acting as a man from long ago. He is playing a flute as he marches.

This little guy wants to be a chef.
He has a tall, white hat. What is he going to cook up? Something for a healthy diet?

Here is a hat for the garden. It keeps the sun off while they trim the plants. You even need to wear a hat on a cloudy day when the sky is grey.

These are hard hats. They need to wear them while they are working. If bolts or rocks fall, the hard hats will keep them safe.

These are hats to mark the end of study. They toss them up into the air and cheer. What a riot! Now they get to start new lives.

Here is a hat for those that fight fires. They need to wear it in case parts of the house fall while they are helping people.

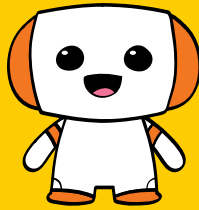

Here is a cap for while she walks along the trail. You need to bring a hat, some water and a snack if you go out for a walk in a forest.

So many hats. Some to keep warm and some to look good.
Hats for work and hats for fun.
Hats for all!
