

THE MAGIC LOOM

illustrated by:
Antonio Reinhard Wisesa

After lunch, Kim's
mother likes to sing
and work at her loom.

The sounds of her mother's singing
soothes her as she drifts off for her
afternoon nap.

A noise wakes her.

Tap! Tap! Tap!

She can't get back to sleep.

She follows the sound
out into the street,
walking along in her
bare feet.

Inside, there is a loom like her mother's.

Kim sits down to use it like her mother does.

But it is a magic loom!

It starts weaving all by itself. A rug begins to form.

All of a sudden, the magic loom takes off, whisking her
into the sky.

The magic loom
takes her into the clouds. It rides on a lovely song.

Her heart soars as she rides the magic
loom.

And the song swells in her ears until she wakes and sees that it was her mother's song all along.
