

UMBRELLA

illustrated by Wong Chew Wee

This big, red umbrella
is Dora the duckling's favourite item.

She wears it with everything that she
owns, rain or shine.

Oh no! Dora cannot find her umbrella this morning.

Where could it be?

She checks all around the house to no avail.

Dora heads outside to see if she left it somewhere while she was playing the day before.

It has started to rain.

She asks if the squirrel has seen it.

Next she tries down
by the pond.

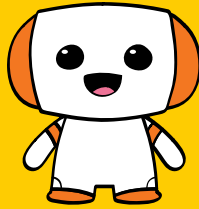

She asks a frog who
is using a lily pad as an umbrella.

He has not seen her umbrella either.

After that, Dora tries asking a mouse. He has an old can over his head as an umbrella. He has not seen hers in his travels.

Dora's mum found the umbrella while she was talking through the park!

Dora will take more care with her umbrella in the future.
