

Name: _____

Date: _____

Folklore

Folklore is made up of old stories that people have told for many years. These stories often have magic, talking animals, or heroes who go on adventures. Folklore can teach us lessons about being kind or brave.

People from all around the world have their own special stories that make their families and countries special.

What are some things that can happen in folklore stories? _____

Who are the heroes in folklore stories? _____

Why do people tell folklore stories? _____

