

Name: _____

Date: _____

Force and Motion

Force and motion help things move. When you push a swing, it goes forward. If you pull a toy car, it rolls toward you. Some things move fast, and some things move slow. You can stop something that is moving by using your hands. Force is a push or a pull that makes things move.

What happens when you push a swing?

What can you use to stop something that is moving?

