

Name: _____

Date: _____

Stars and Constellations

At night, we can see many stars shining in the sky. Some stars make special pictures called constellations. People have named these constellations after things like animals or heroes. Stars are very far away, but they help light up the night sky and are fun to watch!

What do we see shining in the night sky?

What are constellations?

Why do people like looking at stars and constellations?

