

Name: _____

Date: _____

WORLD CULTURES

People around the world have different ways of living, eating, and celebrating special days. Some people eat with chopsticks, while others use forks or their hands. Many families wear colorful clothes for festivals and enjoy dancing or music together. Although we may look and live differently, everyone has things that make their culture special.

What is one way people around the world might eat their food?

What do some families do during festivals?

